Mortgagee expressly reserves, in addition to its right to retain the Deposit, all rights at law and equity to enforce or recover damages with respect to any breach of the Sale Memorandum. The Mortgagee, in its sole discretion, may amend or alter the terms of the Auction Sale at the Auction Sale or any postponement thereof, orally or by written notice at or prior thereto, with such amended or altered terms to be binding upon all bidders. Mortgagee may postpone, continue, suspend, or cancel the Auction Sale by announcement or posting at the Premises. The Mortgagee may bid on, and make successive bids on, and purchase the Premises at the Auction Sale, and may reject, disqualify, or accept bids at its sole discretion. In the event that a successful bidder fails to execute the Sale Memorandum or to timely complete the purchase of the Premises or Business Assets on the terms set forth in the Sale Memorandum, Mortgagee shall have the right, but not the obligation, to (i) convey the Premises or subject Business Assets to any other bidder at the Auction Sale, then agreeing to purchase, with such purchase to be otherwise in accordance with the terms of the Sale Memorandum, or (ii) at Mortgagee's election, and without obligation, purchase the Premises or such Business Assets for itself at the price bid by the bidder who failed to close. Failure to institute such petition and complete service upon the Mortgagee or the undersigned shall bar any action or right of action of the Mortgagor or any junior lienholder based on the validity of the foreclosure, the right of the mortgagee to conduct the Auction Sale, or compliance by the Mortgagee with the notice requirements and other conditions of Vermont law.

The Mortgagor and any other person entitled to notice have the right to redeem the Premises at any time prior to the completion of the Auction Sale by tendering payment in full of all obligations to Mortgagee secured by the Premises, together with the reasonable expenses and attorneys' fees incurred by Mortgagee in connection therewith.
